

May is 'National Share A Story' Month.

Literacy

*Each week, in May, you will listen to a short story
from 'The Moth'*

Literacy

Pay close attention because you will answer questions on it afterwards!

Literacy

THE MOTH

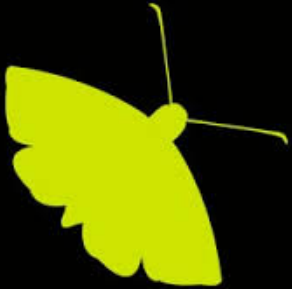

True Stories Told Live

“He says to me, 'So, I see you have a beard. Are you Muslim?'”

Click on the image to listen...

Have you ever experienced a time where you felt like a foreigner, or out of place?

Literacy

Do you think the agent was right to question Amir in the way that he did?

Why/Why not?

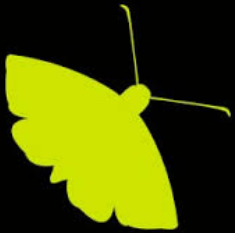

Literacy

*Was Amir right to be annoyed with the agent?
Why/Why not?*

Literacy

Have you ever been accused of something you haven't done?

Literacy

Literacy

Noun of the Day:

martyr

1. A person who chooses to suffer death rather than give up their religious beliefs.
- 2.) A person who makes great sacrifices in order to further a belief, cause or principle.

Literacy

Adjective of the day:

tyrannical

Somebody who uses power in an oppressive or unjust way.

“He was a mean and tyrannical king.”

“It is not our differences that divide us. It is our inability to recognize, accept, and celebrate those differences.”

— Audre Lorde

Story In A 100 Words Challenge

To celebrate National Share a Story month, we will be holding a short story competition.

Story In A 100 Words Challenge

Your challenge is to come up with a story that is 100 words long on a topic of your choosing.

Story In A 100 Words Challenge

The deadline is Friday 27th May.
All entries must be handed in to Ms Kellett, in N16, with your name, form and house clearly marked.