Achievement News

A celebration of academic achievement

- ❖ Maths: 11YJA - I'm really impressed with the class culture you've helped create this year and because of it you're currently on track to achieve some outstanding results this summer. You've peaked at the right time, keep it up. From Mr Altham
- ❖ Maths: 10XDW - Shout out to Calla Sargeant for her hard work and maturity in maths. Her progress since Christmas is excellent! From Mr Wright

❖ Maths: 10XVA

- Incredible attention to detail and resilience demonstrated by Jack Hughes and Faith Abbott in Maths.
- Zac Climpson had a remarkable effort at generating a single line solution to a multistage problem and though it was not fully correct, he did present his solution using correct mathematical symbols.
- Dexter Harrison, Simon Reynolds, Thomas Watson and Lara Moyano-Taylor all had great attempts at the solution and with more time may well have achieved the final answer. From Mrs Ardern

- ❖ Maths: 9XVA:
 - Thank you to Ben Sharples who spotted an alternative method of proving the angle sum of a triangle, which I have shared with the rest of the department.
 - Well done to Sophie Jolly who was the only person to spot the “tilted square” in the homework task. From Mrs Ardern

- ❖ Maths: 9XJN - I have been really impressed with the following pupils who have shown excellent logical skills combined with creativity to find some excellent proofs for challenging problems: Nakita Haigh, Gab Ind, William Barker, Elliot Hunter, Katy Wasilewski, Kaitlyn Wright
From Mr Brennand

- ❖ Maths: 10XJB - Emily Wood - Well done on all your hard work this half term. You have taken a really mature approach to your studies since January and it's a pleasure to see you enjoying 'getting it'. From Miss Bland
- ❖ Maths: 11YJB - Olivia Corcoran - I am so impressed with the confidence you are displaying in lesson. You are absolutely smashing quadratics, which is a really hard topic to grasp. Keep it up! From Miss Bland

- ❖ Maths: 7YJB - A massive well done from Miss Bland to the following students for their hard work since September:
